

PRIVACY POLICY

How we store and secure your data

We're committed to making sure any information you give us is secure. We've put in place suitable procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect from you.

Data we collect from this website

We use the contact form on our website to collect your name, email address, phone number and information about your booking. This personal data is used solely for providing you with information on your holiday. Communications between this website and your browser are encrypted and delivered over HTTPS. The information is also emailed securely to us through our UK based hosting provider.

The information you provide through the contact form on our website is stored in our website's database and may be used for future marketing purposes with regard to Duck's Cottage only. If you would prefer that this information is not retained please let us know. It is our policy never to pass your personal data to any third parties without first obtaining your consent unless we're asked to do so by law.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. We cannot be held responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting other websites and those websites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement on the websites in question.

Questions

If you have any questions about this privacy policy or concerns about the way we handle your personal data, please get in touch.
